Woolton Hill is a well-regarded area south west of Newbury. Together with the adjoining villages of Highclere and Broad Layings, it forms a scattered community that is surrounded by attractive countryside, which includes The Chase, a delightful area of woodland much used for local recreation, owned by The National Trust. Communications from here are very good, both by road and rail. Within the village, there is a small store/post office, doctors surgery, well regarded infant and junior schools, church, village hall, children's playground and public house.
