

THE OLD CHAPEL, BOLTBY
£650,000

Carter Jonas

BOLTBY, THIRSK, YO7 2DY

A four-bedroom home in the idyllic village of Boltby, offering stunning views, spacious gardens, and convenient access to North Yorkshire's amenities and schools.

Nestled in the charming village of Boltby, The Old Chapel offers a serene retreat in the heart of North Yorkshire. This picturesque village of Boltby is set within the stunning North York Moors National Park, providing a tranquil and scenic backdrop for your home. The elevated plot of The Old Chapel affords commanding views of the rolling countryside, making it a perfect haven for nature lovers and those seeking peace and quiet.

This converted chapel offers a blend of historic character and modern living, featuring original beams and stone mullioned arched windows. The upper floor boasts an open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area filled with natural light from Velux windows.

The lower ground floor includes a utility room, study with garden access, and a WC. The ground floor has a principal bedroom with an ensuite, a single bedroom, a family bathroom, and two double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and ensuite showers. The home office with a separate entrance is ideal for remote work.

Conveniently located near the A19, the property provides easy access to nearby market towns and major cities. The area is known for its excellent public houses, restaurants, and schools. Externally, the property features a detached double garage, off-street parking, and landscaped gardens with paths and patio areas.
